Teachers Day -5th September

On Teachers day at RPS , the love showered by the students made the teachers just sitback and relax for the day. Students took up the onus to keep the teachers entertained by arranging variety of programmes. Dance, skits, songs, fashion ramp walk and speeches were all performed to say “ Thank you Teachers”.

Lets see what impact a teacher has on students and what a student need with a recent event.

When Bill Gates attended Seattle’s View Ridge Elementary, he was a typical nerdy 4th-grade introvert who always did his best to keep to himself. Thanks to a kindly librarian named Blanche Caffiere, he was able to come into his own in a way that would one day change the world forever.

"When I first met Mrs. Caffiere, she was the elegant and engaging school librarian at Seattle’s View Ridge Elementary, and I was a timid fourth grader. I was desperately trying to go unnoticed, because I had some big deficits, like atrocious handwriting ... and I was trying to hide the fact that I liked to read—something that was cool for girls but not for boys ... Mrs. Caffiere took me under her wing and helped make it okay for me to be a messy, nerdy boy who was reading lots of books."

He credits Mrs. Caffiere for helping him escape his shell in the true spirit of exceptional teaching. First, she encouraged Gates' passion for reading by helping him explore it through the use of introspective questions, such as what he liked to read and why. Next, she'd go out of her way to source books that were progressively more interesting and challenging for him. Finally, once he'd read them, she would sit down with him and ask him if he liked what he had read, and more importantly, what he'd learned and why. "She genuinely listened to what I had to say," Gates recalled.

In 2006, shortly after reaching her 100th birthday, Blanche Caffiere sadly passed away—but not before Gates was able to thank her personally for the lasting impact her love and curiosity had on his life.

Who are the teachers who have inspired you? Who are the students whom you have inspired?

*Everyday is a Special Day @ RPS.
We bring the World to Our Campus.*

Learning by Doing

There are many ways to do learning , but the one thing that sustains learning is the enjoyment in learning.

At the RPS ,especially in nursery section , we take measures to see to that every day is a fun filled learning day.We prepare the students before and after introducing them to newer concepts. The learning is hidden in games,fun activities, role playing and some reading and writing.

To name a few , we conducted colours day, market visit day,story telling day,shapes day,picking up the beads,threading the beads activities, opposite words day, vegetable and fruits day,vowels day and many more.

Children learn and have fun without getting burdened . The confidence post the activities and the sense of achievement is truly adorable and a efforts to build good self esteem right from the tender age.

Fit India- 2019

The call for 'Fit India' from our honourable Prime Minister is well complimented by the practices at RPS. Today lifestyle diseases are on a rise in India affecting even the young. Cases of diabetes and hypertension is on the rise and even common among children in India.

But small lifestyle changes can prevent these lifestyle diseases. 'Fit India Movement' is an effort to bring these small lifestyle changes. With 'Fit India ' call at RPS our trainers and students participated in the physical activities and excercises with a renewed zeal.

Ganesh Chaturthi Festival

Ganesha who is revered to be the patron of education , intelligence, learning, art, scribes and wisdom is a great guru to the children. Learning the tales of Ganesha inspire children to always rely on wisdom and intelligence to win against any trying circumstances.

RPS Primary students did the craft work and were taught to make Ganesha dolls with their own hands using easily available items. Along with the festival pooja students also learn many handy skills. The students along with Teachers and staff took initiative and performed the Ganapati pooja with mantra recitation and sought the blessings of Lord Ganapati .

Lessons , Stories , Reading

The Ugly Duckling - Komal.P ,9th Std

The 'Ugly Duckling' is one of Danish storyteller Hans Christian Andersen's most famous fairytales. With a powerful message about self-image and acceptance, the story is valued for its ability to teach children the importance of kindness to others. The Ugly Duckling is such a wonderful story, it gives lesson of self-esteem, individuality and longing to fit in. As a lesson this gives us a brief plot, summary and analysis, discussions on the story's major characters.

Andersen's (1805 to 1875) popularity is not limited to children; his stories express themes that transcend age and nationality. Andersen began his fairy-tale writing by retelling folk tales he had heard as a child from his grandmother and others. Soon, however, he began to create his own stories.

Most of his tales are original. The first volumes written from 1835 to 1837 contained nineteen stories and were called Fairy Tales Told for Children. In 1845 the title changed to New Fairy Tales. The four volumes appearing with this title contained twenty-two original tales and are considered Andersen's finest works. Among his most popular tales are "The Ugly Duckling," "The Princess and the Pea," and "The Little Mermaid."
